ZOHREH SAMADBIN

Zohreh Samadbin was born on October 4, 1971, in Tehran. Her journey into the world of art began in her childhood as she filled the pages of her notebooks with sketches and drawings. Even after enrolling in the field of operating room technology, she continued to pursue her passion for painting. Consequently, she embarked on a path that would lead her to the land she cherished the most - the world of art. Today, she is a lecturer and university professor in the field of painting, holding a master's degree in illustration from the University of Tehran and a bachelor's degree in painting from the Art University. With 27 years of artistic experience, she has organized numerous solo and group exhibitions both domestically and internationally, including exhibitions in Italy.
